Copy of a memorandum from H.Q.,105 L Of C Area, No.X/526/1/6/G (A.D.), dated 27th November, 1942.

----

1. The following sites have been selected as Unexploded Bomb Cemetries. Will you please say whether there is any objection to their use from a civil point of view.

(a) A point ¾ milex north of Hebbal Tank and ½ mile west of Bellary Rd. Pt.146287.

(b) A point 3 miles south of Nilsandra Lines on the Bannirgatta Rd. and ½ mile west of the road.Pt.215136.

2. It is pointed out that if UXB were abandoned at these Cemeteries, surrounding villages would be warned and those using the Agram Plain would be warned to avoid the particular edge of the tank, in all cases until such time as the UXB are detonated, which will probably be at once.

Subject: Site for unexploded Bomb Cemetries.

With reference to your memo No. C.L.O. 253/42-43 dated 21-12-42 and a subsequent D. O. letter of even number dated 13-1-1943, on the above subject, calling for a report whether the lands referred to by the military for the prupose may be granted, I have the honor to state that there is no objection for the grant of these lands. During the inspection it was not possible to locate the exact areas required for the purpose. It is desirable therefore to address the military authorities to demarcate the area required for UXB ~~xx~~ cemetery at each point by means of pegs so that the exact extent of land required for each UXB cemetry may be known for taking necessary further action.
